appreciation.

If you are reading this newsletter, you know all about the proposed budget cuts. This has been an very overwhelming week for Ohio Libraries.

Overwhelming in that we were informed of a 50% cut to our funding only one week in advance. And overwhelming in the community support we have received from concerned individuals, businesses and non-profit organizations.

And if you are one of the thousands of Ohio library supporters who contacted the legislation on our behalf, please accept our deepest

Library INK Newsletter Changes

In order to cut costs, the full issue of Library INK will no longer be available in our libraries.

But that doesn't mean you can't receive it. You have a new option besides going to our homepage: www.pcdl.lib.oh.us. Now you can have it sent directly to your e-mail and receive it right away!

Send your e-mail address to LibraryInk@oplin.org to get on the Library Ink Newsletter distribution list. (All e-mails will be kept confidential.)

On June 26, the Preble County District Library and Preble County Schools were awarded a one thousand dollar grant from the International Paper Company Foundation to be used for purchasing books and materials that focus on science.

Site Manager John Winters and Mindy Enicks presented the check to Library Director Abby Noland, and Eaton High School Librarian Barbara Myers. "We think that it is important to support schools and libraries," John said.

The Preble County District Library and Preble County Schools wish to thank the International Paper Company Foundation for their generosity, especially in the wake of our current economy.

"We were so excited to learn that we had been awarded this grant," Abby said. "With both schools and libraries facing tough budget cuts, help from area businesses is even more appreciated."

Miami Nation of Indiana Pow Wow

The Friends of the West Alexandria Library sure knows how to throw a library fundraiser! On Sunday, May 17 the Miami Nation of Indiana presented an afternoon of Native American-style fun that included dance, music, and songs performed by the very talented Twigh Twee Singers.

The children really enjoyed participating in the dance demonstrations -- especially when they learned the "sneaky dance" - used, they were told, when hunting prey.

Over 200 people attended the fundraiser with the Friends earning much needed funds to support the W. Alexandria Library. Thank you to all those who donated!

The Friends and the Library would also like to thank the local businesses that donated to the event: Burger King of Eaton, First Brethren Church (W. Alex), I Dream of Cakes, Kiwanis Club of W. Alexandria, Liberty Equine Supply, Rumpke, Shirley Belcher, Dayton Daily News, Twin Valley Schools (School Librarian, Katie Kelly Green, Industrial Tech. Teacher, David Maddox & the Students who made the Donation Boxes), Twin Creek Tea Room, and the W. Alexandria Church of Christ.

Annual Fall Campaign Volunteers

This year, we've already taken a 16% funding cut in services and materials. OUCH!

Friendly VOLUNTEERS who love their library and can donate a few hours are needed September - October to:

- Place follow-up phone calls
- Make door to door visits
- Stuff envelopes
- Place campaign flyers around town
- Advocate through a connection to a group or organization.

Let us know how many hours you'd like to volunteer!

Please contact your local PCDL branch for details on becoming an AFC volunteer!

The Summer Reading program presented the skit "Colors Everywhere" at the Eaton branch in June. After the show, the children got to stretch their legs by dancing to lively tunes!

If you would like to learn more about Summer Reading visit or call any PCDL branch, or visit the our Summer Reading pages available at our website: pcdl.lib.oh.us

What's Your Story?

Everyone has a story to tell and your library is no exception. Except OUR story can only be told by YOU -- people who have discovered the many ways the library has positively affected their everyday lives.

Do you have a story to tell about a service the library provided that really helped you? Would you be willing to share that story with us?

A few simple words from you could open the door for someone who has no idea of all the library can do for them!

Tell your story today! Visit any branch of the Preble County District Library and fill out a "Tell Us" slip. Or visit our Website at www.pcdl.lib.oh.us to submit your story online.

Tell us how the library helped or changed your life - your story could inspire someone who has no idea of all that awaits them at their library!

Wild About Eyes Kiosk Display at PCDL Branches

Over the next several months, three PCDL branches will take turns hosting Wild About Eyes Kiosk, a FREE interactive display that teaches children and adults the importance of good eye health and safety.

The kiosk consists of four learning stations that use bowling balls, handheld paddles, and an eye safety matching game to provide hands-on learning.

Wild About Eyes was developed by Prevent Blindness Ohio and the Boonshoft Museum of Discovery in Dayton. It is funded by the Ohio Department of Health, Bureau of Child and Family Health Services, and the Save Our Sight Program.

The kiosk will be displayed at the following branches:

Eaton: Aug. 8 - Sept. 8

Eldorado: Sept. 8 - Oct 6 West Alexandria: Oct 6 - Nov 11

Summer Reading

The library visits all the schools to promote Summer Reading because reading when school is out prevents summer set-back! According to the National Center for Summer Learning:

"Contrary to popular opinion—including many educators'—most students, even those "at-risk," make decent progress during the school year! It's summer when they fall behind.

Surprised? Scientifically-based research shows that "On average, children from low-income families lose nearly three months of grade-level equivalency during the summer months each year, compared to an average of one month lost by middle-income children."*

*To learn more visit the Center for Summer Learning www.summerlearning.org/index.html at Johns Hopkins University.

Library Program Note!

Wild About Eyes will be featured at a Family Fun Night scheduled on Monday, August 17, from 6:30-7:30 PM at the Eaton Branch. Families are invited to come for an evening of laughter, learning, hands-on activities, storytelling, and FREE gift bag giveaways!

And it cost Sam his life. But a grief-stricken Dean made a deal...his soul for Sam's resurrection. Now Dean has just one year to live. One year to fight the unholy, the twisted, the ghoulish...And one year for Sam to search desperately for some way to save his brother. Mind-bending adventure awaits as the Winchester brothers continue their odyssey into the supernatural.

From Book to Film Forecast

Hollywood continues to turn to classic and popular children's fiction for inspiration. 2010 will be no exception with 6 book-adapted projects set for release beginning in January.

Cirque du Freak (1/15/10): Based on the twelve book series by Darren Shan Ramona and Beezus (3/19/10): Based on the books by Beverly Cleary that follow the misadventures of school-age Ramona Quimby, beginning in kindergarten.

How to Train your Dragon (3/26/10): Based on the book How to Train Your Dragon: Heroic Misadventures of Hiccup Horrendous Haddock III by Cressida Cowell.

Diary of a Wimpy Kid (4/2/10): This popular series for tweens was written by Jeff Kinney. Book four is coming out on October 12. It is, as yet, untitled.

Gulliver's Travels (6/4/10): The film adaptation of the Jonathan Swift classic will star Jack Black.

Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallow, Pt. 1 (11/19/10): Warner Bros. is, indeed, breaking the last installment of J.K. Rowling's wildly popular series into two parts. Part 2 is slated for a release date in 2011!

RETRO TV ON DVD

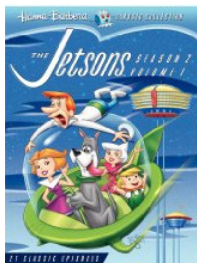

Take a simple premise - alien comes to Earth - give it to producer Garry Marshall who adds a pinch of Robin Williams and a dash of Pam Dauber and you get a crazy situation comedy Mork & Mindy which ran from 1978-82.

Mork and Mindy (season 3, 1978): The season begins with the threat of Mork (Robin Williams) being recalled to his home planet Ork after he undergoes a personality change from too much Earth exposure. Includes: "Mork the Prankster," "Mindy Gets a Job," "Reflections and Regrets," "Dueling Skates," "Gunfight at the Mork-ay Corral," "Mork Meets Robin Williams," "Alas, Poor Mork, We Knew Him Well".

Go space-age crazy with The Jetsons! The first season of this ABC TV series ran from 1962-63. It was rerun on Saturdays for decades. Due to its continuing popularity with viewers, new episodes were produced and ran from 1985-87. This space-age animated sitcom is still popular today.

The Jetsons, Season Two: Meet George Jetson and his quirky family: wife Jane, son Elroy and daughter Judy. Living in the automated, push-button world of the future hasn't made life any easier for the harried husband and father, who gets into one comical misadventure after another!

Both DVDs are on order and coming soon!

Synopsis: Nora Bannister is a bestselling mystery novelist who buys run-down houses in LA. While her business partners turn the house into a showpiece, Nora makes it the scene of a grisly murder in her House To Die For series. As soon as the new book goes on sale, so does the house — and the bidding frenzy begins. It seems a lot of people are willing to pay a lot of money to live in a real house where a fictional character has died a violent death.

Just before Nora's latest book hits the market, one of her house-flipping partners is murdered. LAPD Detectives Mike Lomax and Terry Biggs are assigned the case, but this one is a hot potato — the dead woman is also the wife of one of their fellow cops. As Mike and Terry dig into the victim's private life, more bodies turn up . . . Is someone stalking the house flippers or is the murderer after cops' wives? Either way, Mike and Terry have to track down the killer before he murders his next logical target — Marilyn Biggs, Terry's wife.

Series Debuts

Laura Caldwell introduces Izzy McNeil, hot shot Chicago Attorney in a back-to-back trilogy!

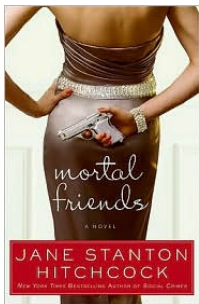

Red Hot Lies: Lead entertainment lawyer at Pickett Enterprises, Izzy McNeil has her hands full as she investigates the murder of Pickett, the disappearance of her fiancée and tries to locate $30 million worth of Panamanian real estate bonds.

Izzy McNeil's adventures continue with Red Blooded Murder (release date 7/1 and Red, White and Dead (release date 8/1). ON ORDER

Jane Stanton Hitchcock Delivers!

A riveting tale of murder, money, and high society, set in the glamorous, politics-fueled world of the nation's capital.

Mortal Friends: When the latest victim of the "Beltway Basher" is found in the woods of Montrose Park, Reven Lynch's favorite jogging spot, her crime-loving antenna goes up. The murder makes Reven and her best friend, Violet Bolton, reconsider their running route—but that's not the only change in Reven's routine. Her chic Georgetown neighborhood isn't accustomed to brutal slayings, and when the smooth, enigmatic Detective Gunner shows up in her antique shop, asking pointed questions, she's left wondering how close to home the killings are.

Gunner is convinced the murderer is a society bigshot hiding in plain sight. But he is out of his element in the rarefied world of embassy dinners and symphony balls, and Reven is perfectly positioned to feed him the inside information he needs. She throws herself into her role as the detective's "ersatz Mata Hari," only to discover that the prominent skirt-chasing businessman for whom she's fallen tops Gunner's shortlist of suspects. And that's not the half of it: a philanthropic bombshell named Cynthia Rinehart has taken the city by storm, and Violet's steady marriage is suddenly encountering some major turbulence. . . .

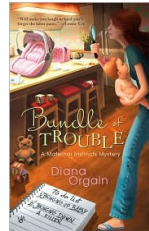

During the course of the investigation, the social world will unravel, an old friendship will be put to the test, scandalous secrets will be unleashed, and Reven will discover that nothing old or new, in high culture or low life, is what it appears. ON ORDER.

A Southern Sewing Circle Mystery

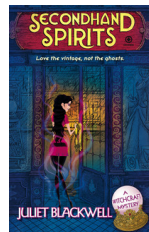

Sew Deadly / Elizabeth Lynn Casey: Ever since she moved to Sweet Briar, South Carolina, Tori's been the talk of the tiny town. But she's been so busy adding a children's corner to the library, winning over the women of the sewing circle, and trying to forget her cheating ex that she hasn't had time to even baste together a pillow, never mind pay attention to the local gossip. Then she finds the town sweetheart dead at her back door, and everything else falls by the wayside...Everyone believes the police investigator, who's just fixin' to link Tori to the murder in a love triangle gone bad through a handsome third-grade teacher. To clear her name, Tori will have to rely on her new sewing sisters and stitch together the truth—or else she'll be darned...

Maternal Instincts Mystery

Bundle of Trouble / Diana Orgain: First-time mom Kate Connelly is bringing up baby—and bringing down a killer...Kate Connelly may have found the perfect work-from-home Mommy job: private investigator. After all, the hours are flexible, she can bring the baby along on stake-outs, and if you're going to be up all night anyway, you might as well solve some crimes. But when a body is pulled from San Francisco Bay that may be her brother-in-law, Kate must crack the case faster than you can say "diaper rash" in order to keep her family together.

A Witchcraft Mystery

Secondhand spirit / Juliet Blackwell: Lily Ivory feels that she can finally fit in somewhere and conceal her "witchiness" in San Francisco. It's there that she opens her vintage clothing shop, outfitting customers both spiritually and stylistically. Just when things seem normal, a client is murdered and children start disappearing from the Bay Area. Lily has a good idea that some bad phantoms are behind it. Can she keep her identity secret, or will her witchy ways be forced out of the closet as she attempts to stop the phantom?

Beach-worthy: What makes a book beach-worthy? Follow these Gotta Read It!

Fans of Sophie Kinsella's Shopaholic series are sure to enjoy:

Twenties Girl: Lara Lington has always had an overactive imagination, but suddenly it seems to be in overdrive. Normal professional twenty-something young women don't get visited by ghosts. Or do they? When the spirit of Lara's great-aunt Sadie...dance-mysteriously appears, she has one last request: Lara must find a missing necklace that had been in Sadie's possession for more than seventy-five years, and Sadie cannot rest without it. Lara, on the other hand, has a number of ongoing distractions. Her best friend and business partner has run off to Goa, her start-up company is floundering, and she's just been dumped by the "perfect" man...

Lara and Sadie make a hilarious sparring duo, and at first it seems as though they have nothing in common. But as the mission to find Sadie's necklace leads to intrigue and a new romance for Lara, these very different "twenties" girls learn some surprising truths from each other along the way.

Sarah Strohmeyer & romance economy-style!

The Penny Pincher's Club: Living in New Jersey—the state that boasts the most malls per capita—Kat's favorite recreational activity is a no-brainer: shopping. But when she discovers that her husband, Griff, has been hiding a secret bank account, her joyful consumerism suddenly loses its appeal. Are their fights about money more serious than she understood? Is he, as her friends suggest, preparing for a divorce? Just in case, Kat decides it's time to start saving.

simple guidelines:

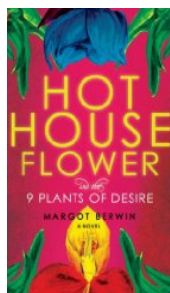

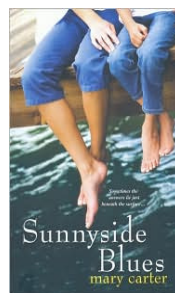

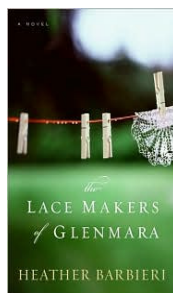

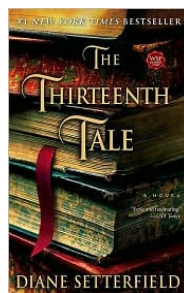

1. You should be able to hold the book with one hand (so you can hold a treat in the other!) No hefty tomes on this beach! Sorry Harry Potter! Sorry War and Peace!
2. The storyline has to be exciting and interesting, but not "lofty" - too much thinking could cause sunstroke - maybe even a heat rash!
3. The book must be one you will enjoy, not something you feel pressured to read by a list. Who cares if you prefer Nora Roberts to Barbara Kingsolver, or Nicholas Sparks to John Grisham. It's your time! Spend it reading what you like!
4. "Fluffy Fiction" and "Beach Book" don't have to be synonymous! There are plenty of titles out there that contain the perfect balance between 'weighty' and 'fluffy' - such as: The Thirteenth Tale by Diane Setterfield, a fascinating Gothic-style ghost story that pays tribute to Brontë and du Maurier; The Lace Makers of Glenmara by Heather Barbieri in which a young American woman helps a group of lace makers change their lives—and, ultimately, her own, set against the backdrop of an idyllic Gaelic village; or Sunnyside Blues by Mary Carter which gives readers the satisfying tale of twenty-five-year-old Andes Lane who must "...confront the secrets she tried to leave behind and the lies that have kept her running..."

Other Beach Book Suggestions:

- Hothouse Flower and the Nine Plants of Desire / Margot Berwin: In the heart of New York City, hidden in the back room of an old Laundromat, are nine rare and valuable plants. [This book] tells the story of this legendary garden, and the distance one woman must travel—from the cold, harsh streets of Manhattan to the lush jungles of the Yucatan Peninsula—to claim what is hers. Getting great buzz in reviews!
- Summer House / Nancy Thayer: Charlotte is 30, rebelling against her family's goals for her life, and privately atoning for a terrible mistake she made. Helen, 60, has overheard a conversation that brings her agony—and a chance to understand her place in the family. And Nona, at 90, knows the time has come to reveal the most profound secret of all. As summer progresses, all three Wheelwright women must come to terms with decisions they have made. Revisiting the lives and loves that have crossed their paths and the possibilities of the roads not taken, they may just discover that what they've always sought was right in front of them all along.
- Best Friends Forever / Jennifer Weiner: Best Friends Forever is a grand, hilarious, edge-of-your-seat adventure; a story about betrayal and loyalty, family history and small-town secrets. It's about living through tragedy, finding love where you least expect it, and the ties that keep best friends together.

Staff Recommendation

Jim Corson, Assistant Librarian at the Eaton Branch, would like to make the following recommendation:

Wild Hoofbeats / Carol Walker: An emblem of the American West and once numbering in the millions, the wild horses is considered by some today as a resource to be exploited or a pest to be eliminated. Now the wild horse is on the verge of being removed entirely from our nation's public lands. Wild Hoofbeats takes us deep into "Adobe Town" in Wyoming's Red Desert and one of the largest remaining wild herds in America. In passionate prose, but above all in stunning photographs...Carol Walker convinces us to take the future of these elegant, exceptional animals to heart.

Why Jim recommends it: Wild Hoofbeats is the story of Cloud, a beautiful white stallion. The book and story was developed and inspired by a PBS series about this magnificent animal and his family. The author has created a foundation to raise moneys to protect and save many of these beautiful, marvelous creatures. The photography, scenery, and animals [depicted in this book] reveal why we need to do what we can to save the wildness, the wilderness, and our vanishing planet.

Recommended Techno Thriller

Suzanne Pontius (MORE Librarian) & her husband Clark recommend this high-tech underground sensation for the wireless age!

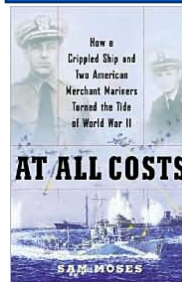

Daemon / Daniel Suarez: Technology controls almost everything in our modern-day world, from remote entry on our cars to access to our homes, from the flight controls of our airplanes to the movements of the entire world economy. Thousands of autonomous computer programs, or daemons, make our networked world possible, running constantly in the background of our lives, trafficking e-mail, transferring money, and monitoring power grids. For the most part, daemons are benign, but the same can't always be said for the people who design them.

Matthew Sobol was a legendary computer game designer...His premature death depressed both gamers and his company's stock price. But Sobol's fans aren't the only ones to note his passing. When his obituary is posted online, a previously dormant daemon activates, initiating a chain of events intended to unravel the fabric of our hyper-efficient, interconnected world...it's up to an unlikely alliance to decipher his intricate plans and wrest the world from the grasp of a nameless, faceless enemy—or learn to live in a society in which we are no longer in control.

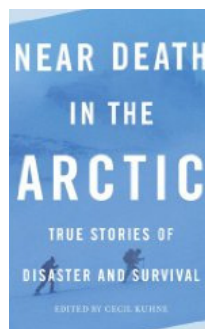

WWII Real Life Thriller

At All Costs: How a Crippled Ship and Two American Merchant Mariners Turned the Tide of World War II / Sam Moses: This is the astonishing untold account, with original historical reporting, of how two men faced unfathomable danger to help save the island of Malta, Churchill's crux of the war.

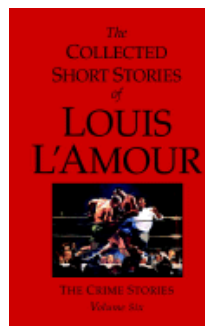

In 1942, the tiny island of Malta was the most heavily bombed place on earth. Hitler needed Malta as a stepping-stone to get to the oil in Iraq and Iran (Persia at the time). Blockaded by sea, Malta was running on empty, in food, fuel and ammunition. Axis U-boats and dive-bombers made supply convoys to Malta more like suicide missions. In this last-hope convoy, 50 warships escorted 13 freighters...along with a single critical tanker, the SS Ohio, with 107,000 barrels of oil... Relentlessly dive-bombed and repeatedly torpedoed, the Ohio suffered huge hits and was abandoned. Two young American merchant mariners—pulled from the sea after their own ship went down in flames—boarded the ravaged tanker, repaired her guns and fought off German and Italian dive-bombers, as the sinking Ohio was towed at 4 knots toward Malta with a tiny crew of volunteers.

Thrilling Tales of Man vs. Nature

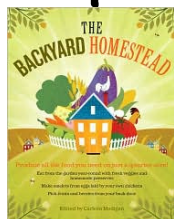

Near Death in the Arctic / Cecil Kuhne: ...astonishing tales of man versus nature, all set against the bleakly beautiful backdrop of the poles of the earth. On foot, by ship, or by dog-powered sledge, these adventurers brave the most savage and desolate environment on earth, their instinct for self-preservation and survival exceeded only by their desire for excitement and discovery.

America's Storyteller: Louis L'Amour

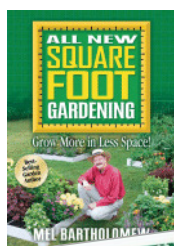

The Collected Short Stories of Louis L'Amour: The Crime Stories: L'Amour takes readers beyond the frontier with thirty-three gripping stories of crime, sports, and the murky world where the two often meet. From suspenseful whodunits to rueful tales of fortunes gained and lost, this remarkable collection will enthrall and entertain L'Amour fans old and new.

Reap the benefits of your own backyard!

Backyard Homestead by Carleen Madigan was highly praised on amazon.com, earning a five-star rating from 6 reviewers! If you are interested in homesteading and want to become more self reliant through home gardening, beekeeping and raising small farm animals this book is for you! Synopsis: Put your backyard to work! Enjoy fresher, organic, better-tasting food all the time. The solution is as close as your own backyard. Grow the vegetables and fruits your family loves; keep bees; raise chickens, goats, or even a cow. [This book] shows you how it's done. And when the harvest is in, you'll learn how to cook, preserve, cure, brew, or pickle the fruits of your labor.

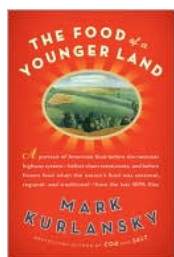

Learn how to make the most of small outdoor spaces. Try the All New Square Foot Gardening by Mel Bartholomew: ...there are ten new features in this all-new, updated book...even simpler than it was before...anyone, anywhere can enjoy a Square Foot garden -- Children, adults with limited mobility, even complete novices can achieve spectacular results.

Make the most of your property by becoming an "urbanite gardener". The Urban Homestead: Your Guide to Self-sufficient Living in the Heart of the City by Kelly Coyne & Erik Knutzen: [This] is the essential handbook for a fast-growing new movement: urbanites are becoming gardeners and farmers. Rejecting both end-times hand wringing and dewy-eyed faith that technology will save us from ourselves, urban homesteaders choose instead to act...If you would like to harvest your own vegetables, raise city chickens, or convert to solar energy, this practical, hands-on book is full of step-by-step projects that will get you started homesteading immediately, whether you live in an apartment or a house.

Food of a Younger Land / Mark Kurlansky: In the 1930s, with the country gripped by the Great Depression and millions of Americans struggling to get by, FDR created the Federal Writers' Project under the New Deal as a make-work program for artists and authors. A number of writers, including Zora Neale Hurston, Eudora Welty, and Nelson Algren, were dispatched all across America to chronicle the eating habits, traditions, and struggles of local people. The project, called "America Eats," was abandoned in the early 1940s because of the World War and never completed.

[This book] unearths this forgotten literary and historical treasure... captures these remarkable stories, and combined with authentic recipes, anecdotes, photos, and his own musings and analysis, evokes a bygone era when Americans had never heard of fast food and the grocery superstore was a thing of the future.

Biography that Inspires

The Horse Boy: A Father's Quest to Heal His Son / Rupert Isaacson: When his son Rowan was diagnosed with autism, Rupert Isaacson was devastated, afraid he might never be able to communicate with his child. But when Isaacson, a lifelong horseman, rode their neighbor's horse with Rowan, Rowan improved immeasurably. He was struck with a crazy idea: why not take Rowan to the one place in the world where horses and shamanic healing intersected?

This is the dramatic and heartwarming story of that impossible adventure...This is a deeply moving, truly one-of-a-kind story--of a family willing to go to the ends of the earth to help their son, and of a boy learning to connect with the world for the first time.

Crazy for the Storm: A Memoir For Survival / Norman Ollestad: From the age of three, Norman Ollestad was thrust into the world of surfing and competitive downhill skiing by the intense, charismatic father he both idolized and resented...Yet it was these exhilarating tests of skill that prepared "Boy Wonder," as his father called him, to become a fearless champion—and ultimately saved his life.

Flying to a ski championship ceremony in February 1979, the chartered Cessna carrying Norman, his father, his father's girlfriend, and the pilot crashed into the San Gabriel Mountains and was suspended at 8,200 feet, engulfed in a blizzard. "Dad and I were a team, and he was Superman," Ollestad writes. But now Norman's father was dead, and the devastated eleven-year-old had to descend the treacherous, icy mountain alone. Set amid the spontaneous, uninhibited surf culture of Malibu and Mexico in the late 1970s, this riveting memoir, written in crisp Hemingwayesque prose, recalls Ollestad's childhood and the magnetic man whose determination and love infuriated and inspired him—and also taught him to overcome the incomitable.

Question: How is a series romance different from a single title romance?

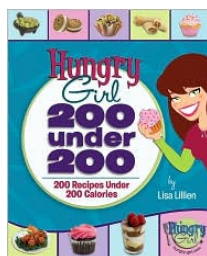

Answer: According to Romance Writers of America: "Series or "category" romances are books issued under a common imprint/series name that are usually numbered sequentially and released at regular intervals, usually monthly, with the same number of releases each time." Page length is also much shorter than that of single title romances.
